

MSBMB President's Fellowship Award

Nomination Form

Award Year: 2019

The MSBMB President's Fellowship is awarded to a biochemist or molecular biologist who has made important contributions to the field of Biochemistry and Molecular Biology at the international level as evident through their track records that include, but are not limited to their publications, receipt of various awards, receipt of prestigious funding or grants, invitation to present lectures at prestigious meetings and other recognized achievements of similar standing.

The winner of the MSBMB President's Fellowship will receive a prize of RM5000, a medal, a certificate of achievement and induction as a life-time member.

The recipient of the award will give the President's Fellowship Lecture at the Annual Conference of the Society upon receipt of their awards.

Nomination procedure and eligibility criteria:

- The work for which the award recognizes must have been carried out in Malaysia for a significant amount of time that can be subjectively agreed upon by the selection committee such as for the majority of the publications listed in the appended publications list that is to be submitted with the nomination form.
- Candidates should be nominated using the official nomination form provided.
- A cover letter, not exceeding ONE page of A4 (in Arial font with a minimum size of 10) and addressed to the Honorary Secretary, Malaysian Society for Biochemistry and Molecular Biology should accompany the nomination form. The nomination letter should summarize the nominees' achievements that clearly distinguish the nominees' excellent track record in the field of practice. The nominees should have an international track record that highlights their contributions to their respective fields of study/practice.
- Please note that self-nomination is not permitted.
- The nomination should be proposed by a practitioner of the field who can provide references and attest to the candidate's suitability for the award.
- The nomination should be seconded by a practitioner of the field who can provide references and attest to the candidate's suitability for the award.
- The nominating party must provide a brief CV (not exceeding 2 sides of A4) and list their nominee's top twenty recent publications or unspecified number of equivalent achievements. The list of publications can include brief statements (not exceeding 70 words per statement) that highlight the importance and impact of the listed papers or equivalent achievements.
- The nominating party can provide an additional full length CV to highlight the career of their nominee as a supplement but is not compulsory for the nomination.
- All nominations must be submitted via email to pbmm@gmail.com by 31 March 2019.